

The train was famous for its five-course French meals, and its glamorous passengers.

The route starts in Moscow and passes through Yaroslavl on the Volga, Exaterinburg in the Urals, Irkutsk near Lake Baikal's southern extremity, Khabarovsk and Vladivostok.

An optional route is to go to Ulaan Bataar rather than to Vladivostok.

Several itineraries are available

you may, for example, continue on to Beijing, and we will be happy to discuss the options with you.

HIGHLIGHTS:

Experience the beauty of Siberia and mystical Lake Baikal and the historical towns outside the main centres of Moscow and St Petersburg.
